Gospel Meditation

March 31, 2024

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

Outside Chicago, there is a small cemetery in the woods behind Mundelein Seminary, where I was a student. One night I was exploring it. I looked up and was shocked to see an imposing seventeen-foot angel towering over me and preparing to blow a trumpet. Adrenaline rushed through me. I gasped and uttered, "Oh my God!" Quickly I realized it was in fact a massive bronze statue. I tried to calm myself down. But it still freaked me out.

As we begin to celebrate Easter today, this image might seem a bit unnerving. But please recall that for the first disciples on the morning of the resurrection, it was precisely that. It wasn't joyful at first, it was terrifying. It wasn't peaceful, it was unsettling. In that Jerusalem cemetery, something otherworldly had happened. Angels announced that he was no longer dead, but alive. They had blown their trumpets, so to speak, and Jesus had risen. Soon the disciples' shock in that dark cemetery would turn into joy.

We all have our own places of the dead, too, don't we? Deceased loved ones. Our tired patterns of blame. Relationships stuck in resentment.

Indifference to the poor. Lost dreams. Despair about our future. Fear of sickness and death. These are our "cemeteries" where we don't expect much to happen. Today we enter — if we dare — those places with the disciples. See the mighty angel standing there, trumpet ready to blare!

In addition to our weekly donut fundraiser for the Unbound youth program we have numerous opportunities to support our St Gabriel Parish community. This is work that doesn't feel like work at all because we're doing it with a great bunch of guys who are like minded, motivated, and friendly.

If the work of the Knights sounds interesting, see any member or find our leaders on the Parish website at: <https://stgacc.org/knights-of-columbus>.

Series 2: The Mass

Helping our children understand the depth of the Mass & how to better participate.

Praying the Mass with the Elementary Child

In the Eucharistic Liturgy we visibly see the great gift from God to man and our response in offering Jesus, and ourselves through him, back to God. Let us become attuned to this great exchange! Participation in the Mass consists, most essentially, in uniting our hearts and minds to the events taking place before and around us.

Sit up front with your children so they might better see what is taking place and incorporate some of the following ideas to engage your school-age children in praying on the Great Mystery of the Holy Mass.

Idea #1:

The gestures the priest makes during the liturgy of the Eucharist are rich in meaning. Talk to your children about one gesture of the Mass before the liturgy and look for it during worship. Discuss as a family what you were picturing or thinking about when this gesture was prayed during the Eucharist.

Called to be Christian Stewards

"As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God's varied grace"
(1 Pt 4:10)

As Christian stewards, we receive God's gifts gratefully, cultivate them responsibly, share them lovingly in justice with others, and return them with increase to the Lord.

Stewards of God's gifts are not passive beneficiaries. We cooperate with God in our own redemption and in the redemption of others.

We are also obliged to be stewards of the Church—collaborators and cooperators in continuing the redemptive work of Jesus Christ, which is the Church's essential mission. This mission—proclaiming and teaching, serving and sanctifying—is our task. It is the personal responsibility of each one of us as stewards of the Church.

All members of the Church have their own roles to play in carrying out its mission:

- Parents, who nurture their children in the light of faith
- Parishioners, who work in concrete ways to make their parishes true communities of faith and vibrant sources of service to the larger community
- All Catholics, who give generous support—time, money, prayers, and personal service according to their circumstances—to parish and diocesan programs and to the universal Church.

Do you feel called to serve in a particular Ministry?

Reach out to any of our Ministry Leaders for ways you can participate.

MISSION STATEMENT

Within our strong Catholic community, we develop children to their fullest God-given potential – spiritually, intellectually morally, socially and physically.

Kindergarten Celebrates their Patron Saint Patrick Feast Day

Our Kindergarten classroom patron is Saint Patrick. Students celebrated the feast day by learning about St. Patrick through classroom lessons, crafts, games, and storybooks. They decorated their Breastplates and wore them proudly, as well as the St. Patrick Miter. Games included casting the snakes out of Ireland into the sea and catapulting lucky charms. The students also learned about their patron through a fun story. They finished it off with a shamrock treat!
