Gospel Meditation

April 14, 2024
3rd Sunday of Easter

When I was a kid, a friend at my home parish told me, "If you get to Mass by the Gospel reading, it counts!" As a lifelong late-arriver, it's something I have told myself many times, especially in my earlier years as a Catholic. If the "it counts" is justifiable on a pathetically minimal scale of liturgical legalism, then the Gospel reading today shows how insanely wrong-headed it is, and how helpful it is to re-think the Mass in its light.

The famous "Road to Emmaus" story recounts, on that first Sunday of the Resurrection, the basic two-fold structure of the Mass: Word, followed by Eucharist.

Jesus spends a significant period of time with two dismayed disciples, as he connects a wide swath of the Hebrew scriptures with his own suffering, death, and resurrection. They would later report that this Liturgy of the Word touched their hearts with an inexplicable fire.

This Word-induced flame alone is what leads the two disciples to discover Jesus' presence in the "breaking of the bread."

With this in mind, how can we possibly think that the Liturgy of the Word is unnecessary or incidental? The two disciples needed the Scriptures explained to them in order to experience Jesus alive in the eucharistic breaking of bread. Sure, we say, but they had the Risen Jesus. But that's precisely the point: Jesus is risen and accompanies us in both parts of the Mass. Imagine how much our experience of Jesus in the Eucharist would deepen if we (preachers and listeners) took even more seriously that Jesus himself sets our hearts ablaze with his Word so that we know him in the Eucharist. That Word-induced fire counts, too

Jordan B. Sherrill

for receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation at the Easter Vigil, March 30th, 2024

A quintessential "cradle-Catholic": Jordan was baptized shortly after birth at the St. John Vianney in Sedona, AZ. There, he attended regular Sunday Mass with his family, up to and beyond his first Reconciliation and first Communion sacraments. With a rich familial tradition in aviation, 9/11 hit the Sherrill household hard, and found themselves attending mass less so as the years went on. Until, in March 2023, Jordan awoke one morning hearing what he describes as "the Divine call" to action. Immediately, seeking out his closest parish, Jordan began a reversion to faith through the Church's approved OCIA program—towards his sacrament of Confirmation. Now, one year later, Jordan has finally come home.

THE SCIENCE OF FETAL PAIN

UNBORN BABIES CAN FEEL PAIN BY 15 WEEKS GESTATION & POSSIBLY EARLIER

The basic anatomical organization of the human nervous system is established by 6 weeks. Nerve synapses for spinal reflex are in place by 10 weeks. Pain receptors begin forming at 7 weeks gestational age.

FETAL REACTIONS PROVIDE EVIDENCE OF PAIN RESPONSE

As early as 8 weeks, the baby exhibits reflex movement during invasive procedures. Evidence indicates that subjections to painful stimuli as a fetus is linked with longterm harmful neurodevelopmental effects.

THE EARLIER INFANTS ARE DELIVERED, THE STRONGER THEIR RESPONSE TO PAIN

STANDARD OF CARE NOW CALLS FOR DIRECT FETAL ANALGESIA & ANESTHESIA DURING FETAL SURGURY BEGINNING AT ATLEAST 15 WEEKS

Fetal Surgeons recognize unborn babies as patients.

BABIES ARE SURVIVING & THRIVING AT EVER YOUNGER PRE-TERM AGES WHEN GIVEN APPROPRIATE CARE & TREATMENT

Building Our Domestic Church Series 2: The Mass

It is in the context of the family that we first learn who God is and to prayerfully seek His will for us. We offer you some helpful suggestions on how to build your "domestic church" through a life of prayer that can help all the members of your family.

Praying the Mass with the Elementary Child

In the Eucharistic Liturgy we visibly see the great gift from God to man and our response in offering Jesus, and ourselves through him, back to God. Let us become attuned to this great exchange! Participation in the Mass consists, most essentially, in uniting our hearts and minds to the events taking place before and around us. Sit up front with your children so they might better see what is taking place and incorporate some of the following ideas to engage your school-age children in praying on the Great Mystery of the Holy Mass.

Idea #3:

If the Eucharistic Liturgy is a moment of gift and response as shown in the Epiclesis and Offering, where else in the Mass do you experience gifts being given and responded to?

St. Gabriel the Archangel Catholic Parish

Invites You

to participate in a Faith Formation experience to become a Level 1 Catechist for Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (for work with the 3-6 year old child)
