SUNDAY READINGS

First Reading:

Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?" "Here I am," I said; "send me!" (Is 6:8)

Psalm:

In the sight of the angels I will sing your praises, Lord. (Ps 138)

Second Reading:

Therefore, whether it be I or they, so we preach and so you believed. (1 Cor 15:11)

Gospel:

Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men." When they brought their boats to the shore, they left everything and followed him. (Lk 5:10-11)

Gospel Meditation

February 9, 2025
5th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Luke 5:1-11

My parents' garage is full of old junk that no longer serves any purpose in my life. As a 46-year-old man, I admit that's pretty lame. Either due to my sentimentality or laziness (or both, probably), I just couldn't get myself to throw things away. But a few days ago, by a grace of God, I thought: "I'll hire my nephew Ryan to throw a bunch of my stuff away – he couldn't care less about my junk!" And you know what? It worked. In one day, Ryan chucked the majority of his uncle's useless stuff. I feel so free, ready for a new junk-free chapter in my life.

This kind of thing happens in this Sunday's Gospel. Peter's net is full of useless junk. Luke says he and the others are cleaning their nets after catching no fish. Imagine them dejectedly and impatiently removing a nasty assortment of seaweed, sticks and muck. The Lord teaches and calls them once their nets are cleared out. So it goes with us. Spiritual life begins by removing that which is useless and merely taking up space in our hearts, minds and lives. Then Jesus teaches and acts in a marvelous way in our lives, too.

So what's junking up your net? What habits, attachments, possessions, preoccupations? If, like me, you struggle to clean your nets by yourself, ask the Lord to send you someone like my nephew to be your "Peter" and help you clean it out. It is well worth it. Once Peter's net is clean, he is free to make a wonderful catch.

Live Generously

It's tough to watch people suffer and not know how to help. Especially when your faith urges you to do something. So become a Vincentian! Get out of bed with a new purpose every day. See the face of Christ in the people around you. Be the face of Christ through your acts of service..

Our Mission

"A network of friends, inspired by Gospel values, growing in holiness and building a more just world through personal relationships with and service to people in need."

Who We Are

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul USA is a Catholic lay organization inspired by Gospel values. We join together to grow spiritually by offering person-to-person service to neighbors in need, and keep in the tradition of our founder, Blessed Frédéric Ozanam, and patron, St. Vincent de Paul.

How Does SVdP Differ From Other Charities?

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul is composed of women and men who seek personal holiness through works of charity. In this essential way, the Society differs from organizations whose principal objective is not the spiritual advancement of their members but the doing of good for someone else.

We don't provide transactions; we create and nurture relationships. The Society's mission is clear: our ministry is a means for acquiring holiness.

Upcoming Meetings:

The St Vincent de Paul society and Knights of Columbus council 13286 will once again partner to conduct a men's and women's clothing drive to support homeless families and individuals in the greater Phoenix area. Donations will be distributed via the Downtown SVdP Center. Needed priority items include knit hats, blouses/shirts, pants, jackets, socks, underwear, shoes/sneakers, sweatshirts and sweatpants. Toiletries are also always needed.

Please put aside those new and slightly worn items (you know, those sitting in the back closet) for this effort. Donations should be dropped off before or after Mass the weekend of Feb. 22-23 at the SVdP truck in the South Parking Lot. We thank you in advance for your generosity in helping those in need.

If the work of the Knights sounds interesting, see any member or find our leaders on the Parish website at stgacc.org/knights-of-columbus.

From the Pastor's Desk

It's been a while since I have written to all of you. I think it's important to communicate with you often, therefore I am making a conscious effort to do so on a regular basis. My goal is to write at least once a month.

Please pray for Fr. Tim this month as he is taking his annual vacation and is back home in Africa through the end of the month. Please pray for safe travels for him, and strength for me. Please also extend thanks to Fr. Bona, who is helping with 2 Masses on weekends.

I am pleased to announce that we have hired new music ministers! Most of you know that the music at Mass has been inconsistent and sometimes difficult - for a while, for a variety of reasons and for a lot of people. I'd like you to know that we (myself, Pastoral Council, and staff) have heard your feedback and frustrations. The bottom line is this: even though the Mass is not about us or our preferences, the music is still an integral part. If the music is not helping us enter into prayer and we are constantly reminded how we don't like the music or it is a distraction, then we don't tend to get as much out of Mass. As a Pastor, because the Mass is the most important thing we do as Catholics, I need to help people pray the Mass. While I know it is impossible to please everyone, I do need to help as many as I can. It has been an adjustment over time and not an "easy fix" to say the least.

Since Advent, we have had Kim Scoggin "fill in" to help us get through Advent and Christmas. We received such overwhelming positive comments from each Mass. More importantly for me, I heard how many of you were able to pray the Mass better because of this music. As a result, we have been hoping the musicians would be willing to stay with us. Kim was the Director of Music for many years at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel (which is where Bill Marcotte, our Parish Manager, attends). Several years ago, Kim chose to leave full time music ministry but has helped out at various parishes. I am pleased to say that she has agreed to stay with us more long-term, and not just as a "fill in". Kim has been hired as our Director. She will select the music, lead rehearsals, and will be here most every weekend, but will not be at every Mass. At her request, we have hired her a full-time assistant, Iggi Rodriguez, who will do things behind the scenes to prepare for each Mass and implement the standard Kim has set. Iggi is very talented, and Kim and he have known and worked with each other for many years. As you can hear, the quality and standard of music has been greatly enhanced.

The enhancement of the music; the increase of instruments and the increase in number and quality of singers is an improvement over what we were able to offer in the past. However, it also comes at a cost. I see it as an investment. If you are praying the Mass better with the music enhancements, can I ask you to also consider your tithing? Any increase financially, giving back some of what you are receiving, will help us keep the music standard that Kim has helped us set. This will help us and others to be able to enter in well to the prayer and worship of the Mass; for our holiness and the glory of God.

Please take time to meet and welcome them to St. Gabriel!

In Christ,

Fr. Chad
