SUNDAY READINGS

First Reading:

As long as Moses kept his hands raised up, Israel had the better of the fight, but when he let his hands rest, Amalek had the better of the fight. (Ex 17:11)

Psalm:

Our help is from the Lord, who made heaven and earth. (Ps 121)

Second Reading:

Remain faithful to what you have learned and believed, because you know from whom you learned it, and that from infancy you have known the sacred Scriptures, which are capable of giving you wisdom for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. (2 Tm 3:14)

Gospel:

"Will not God then secure the rights of his chosen ones who call out to him day and night? Will he be slow to answer them? I tell you, he will see to it that justice is done for them speedily. But when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?" (Lk 18:7-8)

Knights of Columbus®

St Philip Neri began his ministry while still a layman by going out into the streets of Rome and striking up conversations with everyone he met. St. Philip would often ask "Well brothers, when shall we begin to do good?" The implication was clear; there is no time like the present to evangelize. You don't need permission or approval. Just ask for grace, take courage, and begin. Half the battle is won just by showing up. The Knights of Columbus offers men a chance to live as a witness for Christ with a group of like-minded Catholic men.

If the work of the Knights sounds interesting, see any member or find our leaders on the Parish website at:

<https://stgacc.org/knights-of-columbus>

Upcoming events:

October is Respect Life Month. The Knights of Columbus will be leading the Rosary every weekend in October 30 minutes before each Mass. Join us while we pray to end abortion and encourage respect for human life from conception to natural death.

beautifully handmade items that make the perfect gift

What is a Prayer Shawl?

They are very special one-of-a-kind handmade knitted or crocheted and are filled with prayers and love in every stitch. When completed, the shawl is prayed over by the Ministry members and then blessed by a Priest or Deacon. Anyone who believes in God and who is in need of a "hug" from Jesus due to serious illness, cancer, surgery, treatments, bereavement, depression, loneliness, homebound..., may be presented with this special shawl.

The ministry also makes very special baptism blankets for the children baptized at St. Gabriel. We also make scarves for the homeless.

To request a Prayer Shawl, call the parish office or email

Gospel Meditation

October 19, 2025

Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 18:1-8

A woman in my parish has an adult son who has rejected his faith. She prays for him every day. She lights candles, says rosaries, and asks God again and again to bring him back. But nothing changes. Is God listening? Is He delaying? She told me once that she feels like the widow in Jesus' strange parable — crying out for justice, but hearing only silence. And yet, she said, she is at peace. I asked why. She responded, "God is already answering. I just can't see it yet."

She embodies something of the mystery in Jesus' parable this week in Luke 18. A powerless widow demands justice from a corrupt judge. This isn't about wearing God down until He gives in. It's about faith in the justice that is already coming. The widow isn't just persistent; she believes that justice is inevitable. And when Jesus points to the judge's words — his fear of being "struck" — He hints at something deeper: God's justice does not creep in gradually. It strikes. It comes like lightning.

Blessed Mary is, of course, the ultimate widow demanding justice. At the foot of the cross she stands before what looks like the ultimate injustice — the brutal execution of her son. But she did not despair. She did not beg for a last-minute rescue. She knew that justice was not delayed. In fact, it was happening. The power of the cross was already unleashing justice upon the world — suddenly, decisively, like a blow that would topple every corrupt power, making even the most corrupt fear her strike.

This parable asks us: will the Son of Man find faith on earth? Or will we mistake God's silence for absence? The cross proves that justice is not slow. It is only hidden. The lightning has already struck. In the cross, justice is speedily being done.

— Father John Muir
