Eucharistic Adoration

Eucharistic Adoration is a time of great reverence.

Jesus in the Holy Eucharist is truly present in the Monstrance and our attitude should be one of reverence, awe & holy silence.
The following are items of proper etiquette
we should observe:

*As Guardians of the Most Holy Eucharist,
we must ensure that the Blessed Sacrament is never left alone, under any circumstance, thus the need for our Committed Adorers.*

- Before entering a seat, we should demonstrate reverence and adoration of our Lord by genuflecting on two knees (if physically able), if unable genuflect on one knee or bow from the waist (known as a profound bow) and acknowledging His Holy Presence. When we leave, we should do the same.
- You may choose to kneel, sit or stand.
- Eucharistic Adoration is a time of quiet, personal prayer and meditation. Please observe Holy Silence while in the chapel. Please silence all electronic devices before entering the chapel. Refrain from talking, whispering or audible prayer. Refrain from playing music or prayers on speaker phone.
- Greet fellow adorers with a smile or nod.
- Please be mindful of appropriate respectful & modest attire.
- Nothing is to be placed on the altar.
- The Monstrance holding our Lord should not be touched.
- Please do not bring food or drink (including gum & candy) into the Chapel.
- Please do not leave any materials in the chapel unless approved by Fr. Chad.

Knights of Columbus®

Saint Pier Giorgio Frassati once said, "To live without faith, without a patrimony to defend, without a steady struggle for Truth, is not to live, but merely to exist." This Lent, we are invited to reflect on how fully we are living out our vocation as Catholic men. Time spent with Christ in the Adoration Chapel can help renew our purpose and deepen our faith. If you discover that the Knights of Columbus might be part of your steady struggle for Truth Check us out!

If the work of the Knights sounds interesting, see any member or find our leaders on the Parish website at: <https://stgacc.org/knights-of-columbus>

WHEN THE HARVEST IS

UNSEEN

Gospel Meditation

March 8th, 2026
Third Sunday of Lent
John 4:5-42

Recently I received a note from a teenager I met years ago. He wrote, "Dear Father Muir, you probably do not remember me, but I wanted to thank you for your inspiring and humorous homilies at the parish. They helped me appreciate the beauty of Catholicism, which I have now embraced in a personal way." That small note moved me more than he probably imagined. I had no idea my words had taken root in him. I was simply sowing seeds — week by week, Mass by Mass. Someone else — his parents, a youth minister, or God Himself — was doing the deeper work. Now this young man is joyfully reaping a harvest of faith.

In today's Gospel, Jesus offers living water to a Samaritan woman whose life had been full of searching and disappointment. By the end of their encounter, she becomes a bold and joyful evangelist. Then Jesus turns to his disciples and says something easily overlooked: "One sows and another reaps" (John 4:37). He is helping them — and us — understand how evangelization works. Often, the one who sows the seeds of faith is not the one who sees the fruit.

This Lent, ask yourself: Are you in a sowing phase or a reaping phase? If you are sowing — raising children, praying for someone, mentoring — be patient. Your work matters. If you are reaping — seeing someone come alive in faith — be grateful. You are standing on sacred ground, tilled and watered by others.

Lenten challenge: Thank someone who once sowed faith into your life. And keep sowing, even when the harvest is unseen.

Fr. John Muir
