Lent Penance Service

Tuesday, March 24th
6:30pm - Church

several priests available to hear individual confessions

Lent is a time to celebrate the reconciling love and the healing graces our Lord offers us, especially in preparation for Easter.

Before celebrating the Sacrament of Penance, one should prepare themselves with an examination of conscience; a "prayerful self-reflection on our words and deeds in the light of the Gospel to determine how we may have sinned against God"

Knights of Columbus®

Much of the growth in the Knights of Columbus is due to young men joining the Order. To paraphrase Cardinal Dolan - young men don't want a question mark, they want an exclamation point! They can find that exclamation point in the Knights of Columbus - a place where they can pursue truth and virtue with a band of brothers where iron sharpens iron.

If the work of the Knights sounds interesting, see any member or find our leaders on the Parish website at <https://stgacc.org/knights-of-columbus>.

Serve With Us!
at the SVdP Downtown Dining Room

Pat & Al lead our team of St. Gabriel Vincentians who volunteer each month at the Society of St. Vincent de Paul dining room in downtown Phoenix.

We serve because we are called to love our neighbors - not just in words, but in action. Sharing a warm meal, offering a kind word, and simply showing up brings dignity and hope to those facing hardship. In serving others, we find Christ - in them and in ourselves. This experience is deeply rewarding and leaves each of us feeling truly blessed. We invite you to join us on the 2nd Sunday of each month. We carpool to the downtown location.

For more info or to join the team to serve, please email Pat at: patminaz@cox.net (open to all parishioners age 14+)

The Light of His Mercy

Gospel Meditation

March 15, 2026
4th Sunday of Lent
John 9:1-41

If you are like me, it's easy to fixate on our shadows: failures, guilt, shame. Especially when we suffer, it is easy to want to blame ourselves or others. In this week's Gospel, Jesus' disciples ask about the blind man, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents?" (John 9:2) They, like us, focus on blame. But Jesus sees the entire situation differently: "Neither he nor his parents sinned; it is so that the works of God might be made visible through him." He does not deny sin, but he sees deeper — through the light of mercy, not the lens of judgment. The scene hinges on Jesus' strange claim: "I am the light of the world" (John 9:5). He sees things differently than everyone. They see shadows and light. He is the light.

Thought experiment: imagine you are the sun looking at everything on the earth. What do you see? Everything. What do you not see? Shadows. Everything is illuminated. If you see it, it is illuminated. For the light, nothing is dark.

Because he is the light, Jesus sees us in the glow of his redemptive love. Even our sin becomes a place where his glory can shine. The man's healing is not just about sight — it is about seeing as Christ sees. Lent is not a season of staring into darkness. It is a time to step into the light — to let Christ's gaze reframe how we see ourselves and one another.

Lenten challenge: Spend 10 quiet minutes this week asking Jesus to show you how he sees you. Not through shame or fear, but through the light of his mercy.

Fr. John Muir

Home Enthronement to the Sacred Heart of Jesus

What does it mean?

The word enthronement means "to put upon a throne". In effect, when we enthrone the Sacred Heart of Jesus as King and Head of our home, we are turning our life and hearts over to Him to bless, guide, and protect us always. Through the Consecration to the Immaculate Heart, we are asking Mary, our spiritual Mother, to extend Her mantle of love, comfort and protection over us and to lead us into a deeper relationship with Her son Jesus.

Why is it so important?

Jesus said to St. Margaret Mary, "I will bless the homes in which an image of My Heart shall be exposed and honored". To invite Jesus and Mary into our homes takes on greater meaning today in these troubled times, and becomes a source of daily devotion and grace.

Saint John Paul II, in an address to the families of the world said, "Always keep your eyes on the Sacred Heart of Jesus, King and Center of all hearts. From Him, you will learn the great lessons of love, of goodness, of sacrifice, of piety, so necessary for every Christian family."

Devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus has existed throughout much of the history of the Church.

However, in France in June 1675, Jesus instructed St. Margaret Mary Alacoque that He wished devotion to His Sacred Heart be made known to the world and revealed to her His Twelve Great Promises and First Friday Devotion.

Through the efforts of St. Margaret Mary and St. Claude de la Colombiere, and with the grace of God, devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus spread throughout the world.

The modern-day version of the Enthronement Devotion was started by Father Mateo Crawley-Boevey of the Congregation of the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary SS.CC in the early 1900's.

Pope Pius X directed Father Mateo to make it his life's work to bring the "entire world, home by home, family by family to the Sacred Heart."

A Powerful Aid to Pastors

As the Enthronement creates an intimate relationship between the Church and the home, and results in greater love for the Eucharist, so it also creates a close relationship between priests and families. The Enthronement is therefore a powerful aid to the pastor, for by its means the zeal of the flock entrusted to him will be rekindled and sustained. Families in which the Sacred Heart reigns and which nourish the spirit of the Enthronement will be for the pastor a staunch support upon which he can confidently rely. Because of its great importance, the presence of a priest at the Enthronement has always been urged by the founder of the work and by the Church itself. Whenever possible, it should be presided over by one of the parish priests, who thus has a splendid opportunity of meeting entire families. Many priests have experienced the beneficial results of these contacts.
